Rivero, Gordimer & Company Wins Small Business of the Year
(21-50 Employee Category)

Tampa, FL — On Thursday, September 13th, the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce held the 38th Annual Small Business of the Year Awards presented by Adcock Financial Group and Warren Averett. The ceremony highlights the positive impact of small businesses in the Tampa Bay area, while celebrating the achievements of local leaders and businesses.

The Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce awarded four Small Business of the Year recognitions for the categories of startups, 5-20 employees, 21-50 employees, and 51-250 employees and one Outstanding Leader of the Year. Among other things, the award recognizes small businesses which exemplify excellence in the areas of operational management, community involvement, and ethical business practices. This year, there were over 450 nominations and applicants across all categories.

On Thursday evening, Rivero, Gordimer & Company, a Tampa CPA Firm, won the award for Small Business of the Year in the 21-50 employee category in front of the 600-plus audience at the David A. Straz, Jr. Center for Performing Arts. Other finalist in the 21-50 employee category included Ayanna Plastics & Engineering Inc., Dobler Consulting, and Global Safety Management.
